

WHEREAS, American women of every race, class, and ethnic background have made historic contributions to the growth and strength of our Nation in countless recorded and unrecorded ways and have served as early leaders in the forefront of every major progressive social change movement; and

WHEREAS, American women have played and continue to play a critical economic, cultural, and social role in every sphere of the life of the Nation by constituting a significant portion of the labor force working inside and outside of the home; and

WHEREAS, American women have played a unique role throughout the history of the Nation by providing the majority of the volunteer labor force of the Nation; and

WHEREAS, American women were particularly important in the establishment of early charitable, philanthropic and cultural institutions in our Nation; and

WHEREAS, American women have been leaders, not only in securing their own rights of suffrage and equal opportunity, but also in the abolitionist movement, the emancipation movement, the industrial labor movement, the civil rights movement, and other movements, especially the peace movement, which create a more fair and just society for all; and

WHEREAS, despite these contributions, the role of American women in history has been consistently overlooked and undervalued, in the literature, teaching and study of American history; and

WHEREAS, International Women's Day is celebrated in many countries around the world on March 8th to recognize women for their achievements without regard to division, whether national, ethnic, linguistic, cultural, economic, or political.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Robert A. Cashell, Sr., Mayor of the City of Reno, do hereby proclaim

MARCH 2007 AS
WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH
and
THURSDAY, MARCH 8, 2007, AS INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

In and for the City of Reno, and urge all citizens to acknowledge the important role women have played in the history of America and the world, by looking back on past struggles and accomplishments, and more importantly, by looking ahead to the untapped potential and opportunities that await future generations of women.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Reno, Nevada to be affixed this twenty-eighth day of February 2007.

Robert A. Cashell, Sr., Mayor
City of Reno

ATTEST: Lynnette Jones, City Clerk
City of Reno
